The city election of town officers does not occur until April but there are already half a dozen candidates for the office of town clerk, nearly twice as many for the marshalship and the town is full of men who think they ought to be the next supervisor of streets. Strange to say there is not a single aspirant for the important trust of member of the town council. We opine the reason of it is that there is no fat salary connected with the office.

THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Are no better than they should be and many need assistance—some long before they get it. As the telescope created astronomy, so spectacles have created new powers of vision.

There are many who could not get along without glasses, and many more who ought not to get along without them. If you need glasses your sight is being continually injured by not using them.
